Maundy Thursday recalls our Lord's Last Supper with His disciples.

It celebrates the institution of Holy Communion.

The word "Maundy" is derived from the Latin word mandatum, which means "command."

We remember how that Thursday night of Holy Week our Lord washed His disciples' feet and gave a "new command, that you love one another."

He also commanded His disciples, during the holy meal, to "do this in remembrance of me."

Today we share in this holy meal of Christ's body and blood.

P We gather in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Jesus Christ is the Light of the world.

C The Light no darkness can overcome.

P Stay with us Lord, for it is evening,

C And the day is almost over.

P Let Your Light scatter the darkness,

C And illumine Your people, the Church.

Prayer of the Day

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray.

Holy God, source of all love, on the night of His betrayal, Jesus gave His disciples a new commandment: To love one another as He had loved them. By Your Holy Spirit write this commandment upon our hearts; through Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Exodus 24:3-11

³Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the just decrees. And all the people answered with one voice and said, "All the words that the LORD has spoken we will do."

⁴And Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. He rose early in the morning and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁵And he sent young men of the people of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to the LORD. ⁶And Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he threw against the altar. ⁷Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it in the hearing of the people. And they said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient." ⁸And Moses took the blood and threw it on the people and said, "Behold the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words."

⁹Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up, ¹⁰and they saw the God of Israel. There was under his feet as it were a pavement of sapphire stone, like the very heaven for clearness. ¹¹And he did not lay his hand on the chief men of the people of Israel; they beheld God, and ate and drank.

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

¹⁶The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? ¹⁷Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.

Mark 14:12-16

¹²And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, his disciples said to him, “Where will you have us go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?” ¹³And he sent two of his disciples and said to them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him, ¹⁴and wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says, Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’ ¹⁵And he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; there prepare for us.” ¹⁶And the disciples set out and went to the city and found it just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁷And when it was evening, he came with the twelve. ¹⁸And as they were reclining at table and eating, Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me.” ¹⁹They began to be sorrowful and to say to him one after another, “Is it I?” ²⁰He said to them, “It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the dish with me. ²¹For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.”

²²And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, “Take; this is my body.” ²³And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. ²⁴And he said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. ²⁵Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

²⁶And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Prayer of the Church

Maundy Thursday Kyrie

P In peace let us pray to the Lord.

C Lord, have mercy.

P O Savior, we come seeking the perfect food, Your flesh and blood,
the life of the world.

C Lord, have mercy.

P Lord, we have no life in ourselves. Feed us with Your heavenly food.

C Christ, have mercy

P Lord, give us a foretaste of the banquet feast to come, so that our faith may be strengthened.

C Lord, have mercy.

P Spirit of God, give us a hearty appetite for Your perfect food.

C Amen.

Lord's Prayer

P We pray together:

C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer

P Let us pray.

Gracious Lord, we give thanks for You have nourished us at Your table, assured us of Your love and strengthened us to walk in faith. Go with us now as we depart in Your peace, filled with Your joy and Spirit.

C Amen.

Benediction

- P Guide us waking, Lord, and guard us sleeping.
C That awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.
P Now may the almighty and merciful Lord, Father, ✠ Son, and Holy Spirit, bless and keep us.
C Amen.
